

Dress Code & General Appearance

Denver Discovery School is a uniform campus and all students are required to be in proper uniform every day. Failure to do so may result in a GPS.

Every Day Dress Code

- 1) TOP: Students must wear a DDS shirt, purchasable from SAI Team Sports (www.saiteamsports.com). Each student must have one Oxford Shirt (short or long sleeve) for EXPO nights.
- 2) BOTTOMS: Students may wear solid colors of black, navy, gray and khaki including dress slacks, leggings, shorts, skirts, and athletic pants (no sweatpants). You may purchase from SAI Team Sports or outside.

*Bottoms may have thin stripes in black, white, gray or navy.

*Bottoms may not have any patterns or bright colors (including leggings).

Physical Education Dress Code Reminders

- 1) TOP: Students must wear a Denver Discovery School P.E. shirt purchasable from SAI Team Sports (www.saiteamsports.com). The colors are different than every day shirt options.
- 2) BOTTOMS: Students must wear athletic shorts or pants purchased from SAI or outside.
- 3) SHOES: Athletic shoes and socks must be worn at all times.

*Students have assigned lockers to change into P.E. attire.

*Students may leave P.E. clothes in their gym locker and will be encouraged to bring them home each Friday.

*P.E. shirts may not be worn outside of P.E. class.

General Dress Code Reminders

- Jeans (of any color) are not allowed
- Skirts and shorts will be no shorter than fingertip length
- No ripped and/or torn clothing
- No excessively baggy clothing
- No exposed underwear
- No excessively tight clothing
- No flip-flops or hoods may be worn on school grounds
- No hats, sunglasses, bandanas or do-rags are allowed on school grounds
- Inappropriate or distracting clothing or jewelry is prohibited. Decisions about clothing suitability rest with the faculty and administration.
- No writing or drawing will be allowed on students' skin

- Clothing and/or jewelry with symbols related to drugs, alcohol, sex, violence and/or media images are prohibited
- Jackets, coats and non-DDS sweatshirts must be taken off and put in lockers at the beginning of the day

All-Weather Clothing

All students should come to school prepared for rain or shine. At times, outdoor activities can be a major part of the daily schedule. Rain gear and cold weather gear (boots, gloves, and hats) should be brought to school when conditions necessitate.

The faculty and staff of DDS reserve the sole right to interpret and enforce the student dress code. Students who violate the dress code will be required to take off the item and/or change into and wear a school uniform for the day, call home for appropriate clothing to be brought to school for them, or be sent home. Repeat dress code violations may result in further discipline consequences.
